

biography

mark wilcox

consultant

Mark Wilcox joined Acoustic Dimensions as a consultant in 2011, and has been involved in the acoustics industry since 2003. Prior to joining Acoustic Dimensions, Mark was a consultant with JaffeHolden. He has worked on a wide variety of projects in the Performing Arts, Museums, and Educational Facilities. Projects that Mark has participated in include The Julliard School and Alice Tully Hall, The John F. Kennedy Center Eisenhower Theater, Radford University Covington Fine Arts Center, Museum of the Moving Image, the Spitzer Hall of Human Origins at the American Museum of Natural History, and Aileron entrepreneurial center.

Mark holds a Bachelors of Science in Engineering Acoustics and Music with a saxophone concentration from the University of Hartford. Mark is a member of the Acoustical Society of America.