Crosspointe represents passion to be a part of a new formula.

The concept is centered on a black box theater that serves as a community venue on weekdays throughout the year and is utilized by the church for weekend services. A spacious lobby with coffee bar provides community / fellowship space, and meeting and conference rooms function for both community conferences and Bible study. To further inter-link the church and its community, a public amphitheatre anchors the outdoor plaza with the adjacent three corners of a planned mixed-use development.

AD worked with Shanks Architects to develop the design concepts to be presented to the development corporation. AD developed animations, printed collateral, and assisted in making the pitch.

AD is continuing to work with Crosspointe to modify concepts until a match is reached between a community development, investors and the church.
